

Newsletter ~ May, 2017

NURSE - IS ANOTHER WORD TO DESCRIBE A PERSON STRONG ENOUGH TO TOLERATE EVERYTHING AND SOFT ENOUGH TO UNDERSTAND EVERYONE.

BLOOD DONATION CAMPAIGN;

3rd & 4th May - In collaboration with Hospital Tuanku Jaafar and the National Blood Bank, the blood donation drive was conducted in Linton's lobby for 2 days to aid in replenishing the blood bank. One pint of blood can save 3 others - the mission was clear! It was a good turnout and we are proud to be part of this humble social giving. A big thank you goes out to all those who came forward to make this a success.

TEAM BUILDING & BONDING: PSG & NEW STUDENTS; 5th May - The Peer Support Group (PSG) organised a team building and bonding session with the new students of Linton and its affiliate colleges. The purpose of the event was to foster togetherness and understanding as it is the core to making their campus life one that is memorable and fruitful. The day was filled with lots of indoor and outdoor activities that aided in achieving the objective of the event.

NURSES DAY & ANNUAL

DINNER; 19th May - "To do what nobody else would do, a way that nobody else can do, in spite of all we go through is to be a nurse!" ~ Rawsy Williams.

Nurses' Day was celebrated by our sister college, Institut Antarabangsa Sains Mantin, with heartwarming entertainment, speeches and award ceremony.

APPRENTICE CAMP 2017; 19th May - 21th May - The Islamic Student's Society organised an Apprentice Camp that was held Camp Rimba Ria Suara Hutan, Hulu Langat, Selangor. 15 students participated in this three day camp.

ANAK ANGKAT PROGRAMME; 20th May - The Peer Support Group organised their monthly visit to the Pusat Anak Yatim Darul Aminan, Seremban. Entertaining the little children with lots of hand and body games and songs, brought happiness in all who participated.

GOTONG-ROYONG; 20th May -
The Student Affairs Department organised a “gotong-royong” for the SM Cluster Hostel Area. Fifty-four students and forty-one staff participated in this service.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION; 25th May -
The birthday celebration for staff born in the month of May was celebrated with an added twist of entertainment and comedy thanks to the HR Department and the students from the Business and Accounting Faculty who gave the audience a choir presentation.

